MINOURA signs up Sarah Hammer
May 24th, 2011

Minoura proudly announces a sponsoring agreement with four time World Track champion and Olympian Sarah Hammer.

Sarah will be using Minoura's new MagTegs Twin trainer, the AC Pro and the MOZ Rollers exclusively, in her training regime for preparation of the 2012 Olympics in London.

Sarah is quoted as saying: "As a track rider I spend hours and hours on my rollers and trainers for both preparations for events and warm up and cool down before and after. My choice has always been Minoura because of their durability, quality, and portability. Highly specialized training efforts need highly specialized training products. That's why I choose Minoura."

Jeff Zell, Manager for Minoura says: "We're thrilled to have an athlete of Sarah's caliber using our products. We're proud to be able to help Sarah achieve her goals and look forward to more championships and the Olympics. The new Minoura MagTegs Twin trainer sets a new standard for power, smoothness, and silence that no trainer can match."
